

OPEN AUDITIONS FOR PERFORMERS & CREATIVES

Wednesday 25 and Thursday 26 September 2019 at Travelling Light Studio

Travelling Light is holding open auditions for artists (performers, musicians, choreographers and puppeteers) who are excited by making outstanding theatre for and with young people that inspires their thinking, engages their emotions and fires their imaginations.

About us

At TL we believe that that all children, young people and their families, are entitled to engage in the highest quality cultural experiences. Throughout our 35 years we have continued to innovate, inspire and change the conversation about what theatre for young audiences is and can be.

Throughout our programme, which integrates professional productions and participatory activities, we are committed to supporting the next generation of theatre makers by bringing together young people with the very best artists and to make, create and share stories together.

What we're looking for

- We would like to meet a broad range of artists who are interested in our work and are keen to support the development of work that is relevant to and representative of all children today.
- We would like to meet artists who have not auditioned for TL in the last 3 years and have not already been part of our programme.
- We are open to meeting emerging and experienced artists working in a performance based art form.
- We would like to meet artists who are interested in both our participation and production programme.
- We would like to meet artists from a diverse range of backgrounds to better reflect the children and communities we serve.
